THIRD QUARTER 2009

VOLUME 29

NUMBER 3

THE OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE SOUVENIR CARD COLLECTORS SOCIETY

AS I SEE IT

William Kriebel (27)

ON THE COVER: A portrait of Abraham Lincoln (enlarged 200%) from a Treasury Bond (?) in the issuing value of $100 and redeemable after 30 June 1881 at a 6% (!) interest rate from 1 July 1864. I assume this was to raise funds for the Civil War. The portrait is flanked by two resting farmers (?) at left (right, above) and a view of "New Ironsides" at right (right, below). I do not know the purpose of the "witch's hat" poking up from the bottom centers of each engraving. It may have been an anti-counterfeiting device. There are also two "100" counters below the vignettes with the same "hats."

If you haven't figured it out by now, the Lincoln card included in the last issue is the annual card for 2009. It is NOT a "meeting card" as there is NO meeting scheduled. The last was in Baltimore in 2008. I would like to know if there is a "need" for an annual meeting and, if so, a recommended venue. In the current economy, I, personally, don't think it is a viable idea. Let me have your thoughts.

I have always considered the "annual" card as a $5.00+ "value" as part of your annual membership dues, which leaves $20.00 for the publishing/printing and mailing of the quarterly Journals, i.e., $5.00 per copy. As of 11 May, the postage has increased by 5¢ per copy ($1.22), not a "big deal," but a foreboding of things to come. I do NOT plan on any increase in the dues structure any time soon.

◇

My Second Edition, like the First, of Souvenir Cards: A Visual Reference, released in April, has some "errors," e.g., on page 16.10, the last five "duck" cards are missing the "D" after the "N" in the numbering. (Incidentally, the Sam Houston ad's numbers have an "error" in that their "Card 82" and "Card 90" are both "N15" which effects their following "N" numbers. The copy was provided by them, not me!)

I have also been advised that there are a few Mike Bean cards that are NOT listed. When I verify them, maybe there will be an "addendum." As they used to say on Sesame Street: "everyone makes mistakes sometimes!" Amen!!

I have now been asked why I haven't included other cards, e.g., those issued for NApEX. Generally, the reason is that either I have none, so few of them, or no knowledge of their existence!

◇

I have had only two (2) members who have expressed an interest in a reprint of the original card "catalog" (1989). That doesn't seem to make the effort worthwhile. As the street urchins in Peru would say, "Maybe later!"

◇

I wish you all a safe and enjoyable summer, and hope that the blue skies and sunshine don't take you too far away from our hobby!

ENJOY!

MEMBERS WRITE and Other Matters

Membership

Your Editor appreciates the kind words from some members who wrote thanking me for my efforts in putting together this Journal, but also, the Souvenir Cards: A Visual Reference publication.

◇

I regret to report the loss of a long time member, Milton Teichman (620), a former plate printer and operator of the Spider Press for the American Bank Note Company (ABNCo) and the Bureau of Engraving and Printing (BEP). He passed away on 20 April 2009. Upon hearing the news, fellow printer Mike Bean (278, L23) wrote, "Milton was a good man and a good plate printer." Amen.

◇

Our Secretary, Dana Marr (751), has been "slowed down" from over a month in the hospital after being hit by a car resulting in a fractured leg and a broken hip. He returned home in mid-May. I wish him a speedy recovery!

I wish to thank all those who sent their appreciation for my work on behalf of the Society, including this Journal, the Auction, and the Visual Reference work.

Auction No. 10: Bids due 15 August 2009

Note: This auction consists of only CANCELED cards, many of which are being offered for the first time and are one-of-a-kind.

For the benefit of new members, I repeat here what I wrote in the First Quarter 2008 issue.

Visitor Center Cancel (vc): These card were canceled by the USPS(?) with a machine canceling device, using some, then current, generic stamp, i.e., bearing no relation to the subject illustrated on the card and/or the show involved.

Show Cancel (sc): These cards are actually canceled at the show for which they were issued. They involve three types—(1) stamps directly related to the subject of the card, e.g., where stamps are reproduced, matching stamps; (2) thematic stamps relating to the subject (theme) of the card or, in the case of numismatic cards, the subjects on the money items illustrated; and (3) stamps relating to the theme of the show involved or the cancel in use. These cards are usually canceled on the first day of issue (FDOI) of the card, which is sometimes the FDOI of a stamp(s) at the show. There are some people who collect cards with cancels for all days of the show, usually using different stamps for each day. This can sometimes "blanket" the card.

I believe that some of the USPS cards allegedly show canceled, particularly those of foreign shows, were actually machine canceled here in the U.S.A., and NOT at the show. There is a distinctive difference in appearance between a machine and a hand cancel!

Show canceled cards add another aspect to collecting and complement any collection.

Auction No.10: Bids due 15 August 2009

NOTE:

Auction No. 11 will appear in the Fourth Quarter issue. It will include a large selection of the F&WL cards, especially those "BD" cards printed by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing (BEP). It will also include many items not offered before. Watch for it!

Remember, bid fairly and bid EARLY!

PRICES REALIZED: AUCTION NO. 9

William Kriebel (27)

We had seventeen (17) bidders and 100 lots were sold (there were some lots with more than one card available) for a total sale of $1,137.00, $33.00 of which went directly into the S.C.C.S. treasury as they were either donations or S.C.C.S. cards. Three (3) lots were withdrawn ("W") for various reasons.

Bids were received between 3 April and right up to the last day. There were several tie bids, which are always awarded in the order received. My thanks to all those who bid and I hope you enjoy your new 'treasures.'

Some notes on my auction process:

I try to group the auction lots in the S.C.C.S. numbering system order. After they are gathered together, they are entered into a computer spread sheet by those numbers, lot number, and minimum bid. Columns are then numbered ready for entering bids. Bidders are entered in numerical order, with dates received. After their bids are entered and totaled, they are checked against their entry form. The bidder is responsible for any errors but, if I catch any, the bidder is notified.

As more bids are received, they are entered, but any previous bids are "hidden" until the auction closes. I do NOT disclose any bids, as some auctions do, which I see as a way to "jack-up" the prices ("shark frenzy").

After the auction closes, a copy of the spread sheet is reduced, eliminating the lines of lots that received no bids. Then, I print out that spread sheet and notate the high bids, including if more than one card is available. A copy of the spread sheet is revised eliminating the unsuccessful bids, and automatically totals each bidder's success.

The cards are grouped together by bidder number and usually placed in envelopes. A mailing label is printed out and the cards are inserted into cardboard mailers. I place another piece of cardboard between the cards and the back of the mailer to reduce the possibility of the mailer's seam damaging the cards. I try to weigh and rate the "packet" for postage and insurance.

All bidders are then notified by e-mail or postcard. Lots are sent only after payment is received.

SHOW TIME!

Charles A. Fenwick (929)

It was with interest that I read Gregg Hopkins comments about his educational souvenir card exhibiting.[see SCJ 28:4, p. 4 and 29:1, p. 2]. I took an educational exhibit to the Michigan State Numismatic Society Spring Convention in Dearborn (23-25 April 2009). It was a seven case exhibit [below] in the "Miscellaneous" category. I am pleased to say that it received a first place blue ribbon. As far as I can remember, I am the only person ever to exhibit souvenir cards at a MSNS Convention.

[Congratulations, Charles! Ed.]
